Mobile Events/Offsite
Kippure Corporate offers several corporate team building games and challenges that can be facilitated anywhere in Ireland. Our team building staff will gladly lead activities in your workplace, conference venue, hotel, or wherever you see fit.

Indoor Events
Indoor team building events are a great way to emphasise themes of your conference, add spice to your company meeting, or turn your executive retreat into a memorable experience, regardless of the weather. Our games and activities are perfect for any location or season and help develop relationships, improve dynamics, and strengthen the sense of company identity among your staff.

Training & Development
For training and development programmes we work with a highly respected training company. Team building activities are fun and memorable, but are also combined with effective debriefs to ensure participants recognise and understand the patterns of team dynamics and processes that affect their teamwork.

Meetings & Conferences
Easily accessible, Kippure Estate is the perfect venue for workshops, seminars and business meetings. We offer a variety of meeting rooms, exceptional customer service, competitive pricing, and a single point of contact for your event handling needs.
